September 18th Meeting

Gino Moro

FAMP State President

Gino Moro is the newly elected President of the Florida Association of Mortgage Professions (FAMP) and he also serves as a Council Member of the Broward Housing Council for Broward County. He brings over 20 years of experience in the financial industry and has been an educator in both the Mortgage Pre-licensing for Florida as well as in the Reverse Mortgage industry. He uses that experience to help his community and devotes a great deal of his time to assist Senior Homeowners that are struggling financially.

Being a Senior Advocate, Gino Moro has taken a special interest in helping Seniors escape the high property tax bills that can result from using PACE loans and HERO loans. He is passionate about the work he does to help families affordably purchase and retain their homes.

Gino will discuss updates from FHA and NAMB as well as upcoming FAMP Initiatives including Education and Affinity Partnerships.
